Special Subjects:

As we mentioned in the previous special situation announcements, a precautionary injunction was issued by the 7th Commercial Court of Ankara with respect to the dispute initiated by Turk Telekom A.S. with the notice that the sum calculated by itself would be deducted from the amounts payable to our Company due to the judgment for annulment concerning Part ANNEX 1-A1 of the Interconnection Agreement related with the call termination fees, upon the action initiated by the Chamber of Electrical Engineers and conducted in our absence. The claims of our Company in that respect have been justified and the claims of Türk Telekom A.Ş. have been proven to be groundless with the order to accept the case initiated by our Company and the continuation of the precautionary injunction until the final decision in the hearing on November 15, 2001.

Our company declared in the special situation statement dated 15.11.2001 that injunction was ordered by 4th Commercial Court of First Instance of Ankara against the letter of the Telecommunication Board of Republic of Turkey dated 18.10.2001 and numbered 14628-8442, titled as "The Terms and Conditions Set Forth by the Telecommunication Board for a Reasonable, Economically Proportionate and Technically Feasible National Roaming Agreement Among the GSM 900 and GSM 1800 Network Operators Active in Turkey" which stated that our company had undertaken roaming services and should open infrastructure services to use and which contained information on the fees payable for such services and the terms of payment.

4th Commercial Court of First Instance of Ankara decided in its hearing on 05.12.2001 for the continuation of the injunction for the suspension of the implementation of the aforementioned letter of the Board as to be applicable to the Ministry of Transportation and Telecommunication Board of Republic of Turkey pursuant to articles 3, 6 and 10 of the International Arbitration Law numbered 4686.

Special Subjects:

It was stated in the statements of special situations made by our company on November 21, 2000, February 26, 2001, March 1, 2001, July 2, 2001, August 1, 2001, August 3, 2001 and November 16, 2001 that Annex 1-A1 of Interconnection Agreement entered into by and between our company and Türk Telekomünikasyon A.Ş. (Türk Telekom) was annulled upon the suit initiated by the Chamber of Electrical Engineers (EMO) and resumed in our absence, but the said agreement could not be annulled by the Administrative Court in an action in which our company was not a party, even was not informed about, since that agreement was governed by private law and joint efforts were started with Türk Telekomünikasyon A.Ş. for re-executing the said annex. Türk Telekomünikasyon A.Ş. is not entitled to fill that gap unilaterally and the agreement may be amended only upon the mutual understanding of the parties.

On the other hand, it was stated in the Audit Report on the activities as of the date of September 30, 2001 that our company filed an application with the Council of State to appeal as Türk Telekomünikasyon A.Ş. had not appealed the court decision in favor of the claim of EMO and a notice was served stating that the aforementioned decision would be enforced. It is also stated in the same report that the application filed by the Company was dismissed by the Council of State on the grounds that it was not a party to the action and that the Company filed an action with the 1st Commercial Court of First Instance of Ankara which granted a injunction.

Türk Telekom filed a suit with the 4th Commercial Court of First Instance of Ankara demanding the collection of the sum stated as payable to Türk Telekom from our company for the period from the effective date of the agreement until September 2001, upon the annulment of Annex 1-A1 of Interconnection Agreement entered into by and between our company and Türk Telekomünikasyon A.Ş. following the action filed by the Chamber of Electrical Engineers. Türk Telekom's request for injunction in that suit was dismissed.

On the other hand, as it is stated in our statement of special situation dated November 16, 2001, since the suit filed by our company with the 7th Commercial Court of First Instance of Ankara, with file number 2001/152 concerning the dispute caused by the notice by Türk Telekom concerning the deduction of the sum calculated by Türk Telekom itself from the amounts payable to our company was concluded in favor of us and since the court ordered for the continuation of the injunction until the final judgment, this new action filed by Türk Telekom is expected to be dismissed.

We hereby confirm that the above-mentioned explanations are furnished as per the provisions of the Communiqué Serial no VIII/20, that they reflect all information we have gathered so far, that they are in accordance with our corporate documents, that we have used all endeavours to collect the complete and true related information and that we assume the responsibility for this disclosure.
